Washington, February 16.—Homage to the men of the battleship Maine who lost their lives in the epoch-making catastrophe in Havana sixteen years ago was paid to-day by the navy and high officers of the nation at Arlington National Cometery. Snow-covered mounds over the sleeping warriors were decorated with floral tributes, and a strenuous little vessel plowed through the ice floes of the Potomac to strew over the graves a detachment of bluejackets fired three voileys and a national salute, and a bugier sounded "taps."

Impressive exercises were held indoors at Fort Myer, the blizzard making it impossible to carry out the full program arranged for the occasion at the cemetery. Hundreds had braved the freezing blasts, however, to participate in the ceremonies at the graves.
